

04.01.23

The set  $B$  of blocks is a decomposition of the set  $V$  of vertices that allows us to separate the problem of maintaining blackhole-freedom and the problem of maintaining capacity consistency. More precisely, to maintain blackhole-freedom <sup>for the entire flow network</sup>, it is sufficient to maintain blackhole-freedom for each block, and to maintain capacity consistency, we consider dependencies between different blocks.